The Purpose

Nancy Glunt Hoffman, a 1962 graduate of the School of Nursing, lost her battle with cancer in 2001 at the age of 61. Since then, her brother and fellow Pitt alumnus, J. Roger Glunt, has worked to create a fitting tribute to her—a chair in oncology nursing at Pitt’s School of Nursing. Due to Mr. Glunt’s continued commitment, his sister’s legacy was fulfilled in October 2013 with the establishment of the Nancy Glunt Hoffman Endowed Chair in Oncology Nursing. The establishment of the chair ensures the School of Nursing will continue its rich history of advancing oncology nursing patient care and research efforts. Additional support of the fund, such as monies raised at this golf outing, will continue to bolster the fight against cancer now and for years to come.
