Please use the following checklist if your submission is eligible for more than one of the following awards. At most you can only receive one award.

Submit only one application with checklist attached.

☑️ Newmeyer-Thompson Doctoral Student Award
The Newmeyer-Thompson Doctoral Student Award was established to provide support to qualified PhD student(s) in the School of Nursing. The funds may be used for travel, dissertation expenses, dissemination of findings, or other related education expenses.

☑️ Judith A. Erlen Nursing PhD Student Research Award
The purpose of the Judith A. Erlen Nursing PhD Student Research Award endowment is to provide awards to students in the University of Pittsburgh School of Nursing PhD Program. Awards shall be used for student expenses related to their dissertation, pilot study, or other research-related activities.

☑️ Ruth and Bill Fincke PhD Student Research Award
The Ruth and Bill Fincke PhD Student Research Award was established to support scholars in their efforts to discover and extend scientific knowledge that advances the science and practice of nursing and clinical care for individuals with chronic disorders.

☑️ Jayne F. Wiggins Memorial Scholarship Award
The Jayne F. Wiggins Memorial Scholarship in the School of Nursing shall provide annual support to the University Of Pittsburgh School Of Nursing by providing a dissertation award. This award is to go to a student whose approved dissertation proposal is found to be well-designed with the potential to make a substantive contribution to clinical nursing practice. The award will be selected by a committee independent of the dissertation committee.

☑️ Swigart/Gold
The Swigart/Gold Doctoral Award for Research in Nursing Ethics was established to provide awards to address the shortage of nursing faculty with a teaching and research focus in the field of ethics. Selection of student award recipients will be made by current nursing ethics faculty and as customary will be approved by the Dean of the School of Nursing.

☑️ Margaret E. Wilkes Scholarship Fund Award Criteria
The Margaret E. Wilkes Scholarship Fund Award was established to provide support for a nursing student pursuing their PhD in order to help with the shortage of nursing educators. Mrs. Wilkes hopes that the recipient of this scholarship will one day use the education attained to teach other nurses. Financial hardship needs to be demonstrated to receive this award. Contact student services to complete paperwork to determine eligibility.