ACADEMIC POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR THE GRADUATE PROGRAM

TITLE OF POLICY: CHANGE OF STATUS FROM PROVISIONAL TO FULL GRADUATE STATUS

ORIGINAL DATE: SEPTEMBER 1993

LAST REVIEWED/REVISED: FEBRUARY 2023

POLICY: Master's, PhD, or DNP students admitted with Provisional Status must achieve and maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above in courses required for the degree sought including those taken as a special non-degree seeking student. Students must be eligible for Full Graduate Status by the completion of 12 credits toward the degree (not including prerequisites) in order to remain in the program.

PROCEDURE: All students admitted with Provisional Status are monitored each term by Student Affairs and Alumni Relations. At the completion of 12 credits toward the degree, Student Affairs and Alumni Relations initiates transfer from Provisional to Full Graduate Status and communicates change to student, Program Director/ Coordinator.
